WEEKLY MEDITATION

Mark's Gospel is direct and to the point:

Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." (Mark 1: 14-15)

It's time. Maybe you got a late start to Lent, maybe it caught up on you before you were ready. Maybe you've been ready, but you needed that little push - that extra kick - to get started and make a change.

It's not complicated. Is there something that's keeping us from God or one another? Is there something that needs to be different in our words and actions? Does the pattern of our lives need to be altered toward the Lord's goodness? Two simple steps:

- Repent
- Believe in the Good News

In the first reading the rainbow is a sign from God that never again will the world be flooded with waters of destruction. The covenant with Noah is a built on hope: life is worth saving, worth fighting for, worth dying for, and worthy of the ultimate sacrifice of Christ on the Cross. Once we recognize God's faithfulness, we can more easily let go of past sins and temptations - turning to the one who love's us completely.

Is there anything holding us back from the Lord? Now is a good time to honestly assess our lives, cast out what does not belong, and call upon the grace of Jesus Christ.

After all, he brings Good News - and once we've left our sins behind, we can embrace the joy that flows from Heaven.

Fr. Andrew
