WEEKLY MEDITATION

About this time of year I start getting the itch to dig and clean out old items around the house. I start in those areas where things usually pile up, namely - CLOSETS! (You know, those places where we throw things that we are not sure if we need...)

I pull them out and ask a simple question, "Have I touched this in the last two years? Have I needed it, used it, thought about it? Or can I get rid of it?" Sometimes we hold on to items (clothes for example) that we simply do not need. We do not use them, and they occupy and clutter space that takes away from other things. Since I am not generally a pack rat, I find this time of year refreshing; it is a way that I can simplify my life and focus on what I think is important.

In John's Gospel we see Jesus doing his sort of house cleaning. Entering into the temple with a whip of cords, he systematically drives out those who are treating the temple like a marketplace. It is a rare glimpse of the Lord's anger, and it reminds us of his passion and zeal for the House of God.

Yet we are reminded that buildings are not the only temples where God resides. St. Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 3:16 "Do you not know that you are God's temple, and that God's Spirit dwells in you?" If the Lord was willing to drive out inappropriate behavior from the temple in Jerusalem, what will he drive out when he enters the temple of our hearts?

To help us, God provided the Commandments - that we might avoid the very things that harm us. The first reading today proclaims these commandments, reminding us that God has provided a path to help us on our journey through life. What's more, these commandments reveal with swift clarity what is does not belong; they point out the very sins that can keep us from the Lord and one another.

In our moments of honesty we know that there are elements that need to be cast out. Sin is a part of our human condition, and all of us have fallen short of God's grace in our thoughts, words, and deeds. We know that if the Lord were to come into our hearts he would discover secrets and fears that keep us from God and one another.

The point, however, is that God has come! The Lord Jesus, through his death and resurrection, comes through the Holy Spirit into our world. His victory over sin and death give us hope that we may have eternal life. We need not fear the darkness in our hearts; we can offer it to the light of Christ.

The Scriptures tell us that we are a temple. Experience tells us that within this temple there is sin. Yet faith tells us that not only will Jesus come driving out evil, but he will make a place to dwell there within our hearts. You see, it's his house, too.

Fr. Andrew

SPECIAL THANK YOU

Thank you to all the parishioners and friends for remembering me on my 60th Anniversary of Ordination. Your cards, gifts, prayers and support over the years is greatly appreciated. We had a wonderful party on Saturday. Bless you all! On to the Centennial in 2058. Fr. Ron

THANK YOU FROM THE KC'S

LENT: RETREAT YOURSELF TO PRAYER, FASTING AND ALMSGIVING"

All are invited to St. Anthony in Lake Nebagamon. Sister Pauline Micke from St. Scholastica will present on Thursday, March 8th from 6:00 - 8:30 pm

This evening Retreat will consider the traditional Church practices of Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving. We will do this in terms of the meaning of these terms, their history in the life of the Church and what is their significance in our lives today. Come and "RETREAT YOURSELF TO PRAYER, FASTING AND ALMSGIVING".

These Lenten practices have been part of the Church's life for over 1,000 years. Join us as we rediscover and re-treat ourselves to these Lenten practices which will help us turn again to the Good in our God and in one another and be renewed this Lent. For More information call Tammy 218-590-0757. A light supper of soup and bread will be served as well. Stations of the Cross and Adoration begin at 6:00 pm followed by supper and Sister Micke's talk.
